LUNAFEST coming to MassBay this weekend
National film festival to benefit Breast Cancer Fund

Wellesley Hills, Mass. – On October 11, LUNAFEST '08 will take place at Massachusetts Bay Community College (MassBay). LUNAFEST is a national touring film festival that was started in 2000 that showcases short films by, for, and about women and supports women's organizations. The 90-minute program is shown in more than 100 venues throughout the United States and Canada between October and May. Each screening raises funds and awareness for local women's non-profit organizations. This film festival at MassBay will benefit The Family of Women and The Breast Cancer Fund.

The Family of Women provides a supportive environment for women to learn more about themselves, to move through personal barriers, and to make positive changes that encourage successful, productive, fulfilling lives.

Luna, part of the Clif Bar family, created LUNAFEST to support women in a number of ways including providing women filmmakers the opportunity to be seen and heard; empowering women by showcasing women's issues, stories and amazing moments; supporting women's health; and supporting local communities by providing a creative medium for fundraising.

The event will be held at MassBay's McKenzie Auditorium at 50 Oakland Street in Wellesley Hills, MA. Tickets are $15 in advance and $20 at the door. Student tickets (12 and older) are $10. Doors will open at 1:00 p.m. with the show to start at 2:00 p.m.
