The world has been a sad place with the recent death of great women’s rights activist, Gloria Steinem. Steinem has been a role model for women all over the world. Through all of her work and activism, Steinem fought for women’s rights, equality, and for a better world for all. Her work included fighting for women’s right to vote, fighting for women’s reproductive rights, and fighting for women’s economic equality. Steinem was a pioneer in the women’s rights movement and her legacy will live on.

Women have been fighting for their rights for centuries, but they have only been allowed to vote since 1920. Women’s rights have come a long way since then, and there is still work to be done. During March, the month of Women’s History Month, we celebrate the achievements of women and their impact on the world.
